

LONG ISLAND HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The Long Island Horticultural Society, founded in 1934, promotes the study of horticulture on Long Island by helping to further the education of worthy students planning a career in the field. Every year the organization offers the James and Mary Lee Fuller Scholarship for Horticultural Studies to honor the commitment of the Fullers to furthering education in the industry and to also recognize their many years of devoted service to LIHS and the horticultural industry.

The Society will offer two $1,000 awards in 2017. The award check(s) will be presented at our June meeting.

Requirements for Application:

- Resident of Long Island
- Matriculated student (part-time or full-time) in a horticultural program
- GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Interest in pursuing a career in horticulture

How to Apply:

- Fill out the application
- Attach two letters of recommendation, preferably one from a teacher and another from a work or volunteer supervisor in the industry
- Attach a transcript from the school you are now attending
- Answer the following questions in a few short paragraphs (limit 400 words):
 1. Why did you pick horticulture as a career path?
 2. What do you hope to achieve with your horticultural degree?
 3. Is there any other information not already provided on the application that you wish the committee to consider?
